Amal Jyothi College of Engineering, Kanjirapally, Kerala

Principal Speaks...

The second half of 2007 witnessed AMAL JYOTHI's onward march towards excellence in technical higher education at a unprecedentedly faster pace. The College has a committed teaching and lab work force who regularly produce, present and perpetuate new knowledge in their own areas of specialisation. We have a slew of research projects as part of the new I²U (Innovations Ideas Unleashed) which have won national level approval. The two dozen clubs continue to equip the Amalites with extra skills and inputs in technical and general creativity.

The final sem. students of 2007 did us proud securing excellent results including one rank. We conducted a grand convocation and felicitated the new graduates in CSE, ECE, EEE, and IT. ARENA '07 proved our supremacy in Basketball. In the university Athletic and Aquatic meets Amal Jyothi shone. The new Football court marks the fulfillment of another dream.

AJCE has made another giant leap in technology with the introduction of complete mail accounts for all staff and students, new website (amaljyothi.ac.in), WiFi technology in the campus and video conferencing. The entire College is networked through OFC. Login ID for all parents is being introduced.

Amal Jyothi Community College, one of our extension centers located near the College, conducts various technical courses having great job potential.

The newly sanctioned National Service Scheme unit has given a fresh fillip to the social consciousness of the Amalites.

Accommodation facilities for lady students attained a new dimension with the opening of another block in the ladies' hostel, enabling the majority of them to stay in the campus.

I thank God Almighty for the umpteen blessings showered on the College. My grateful greetings to my colleagues, students and parents who made 2007, a year of glorious achievements.
